

MRS. LYON'S ACHES AND PAINS

Have All Gone Since Taking
Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Terre Hill, Pa.—"Kindly permit me to give you my testimonial in favor of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. When I first began taking it I was suffering from female troubles for some time and had almost all kinds of aches—pains in lower part of back and in sides, and pressing down pains. I could not sleep and had no appetite. Since I have taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound the aches and pains are all gone and I feel like a new woman. I cannot praise your medicine too highly."—Mrs. AUGUSTUS LYON, Terre Hill, Pa.

It is true that nature and a woman's work has produced the greatest remedy for woman's ills that the world has ever known. From the roots and herbs of the field, Lydia E. Pinkham, forty years ago, gave to womanhood a remedy for their peculiar ills which has proved more efficacious than any other combination of drugs ever compounded, and today Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is recognized from coast to coast as the standard remedy for woman's ills.

In the Pinkham Laboratory at Lynn, Mass., are files containing hundreds of thousands of letters from women seeking health—many of them openly state over their own signatures that they have regained their health by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and in some cases that it has saved them from surgical operations.

BENNINGTON BRIEFS

News of the Town and Village Told
Briefly for Busy Readers

Leo Walsh of Pittsford, who has been visiting in town, has returned home.

Robinson Hall of Saratoga is passing a few days with his mother, Mrs. S. B. Hall.

Mrs. Frank Carrigan, who has been visiting relatives in town, has returned to Pittsford.

Waldo J. Wilkins has accepted a position as messenger for the Western Union Telegraph Co.

The Sunday evening union gospel service which will be held at the Guideboard chapel at 7:30 will be led by John A. Evans.

The corn roast which was planned by the Senior Endeavor of the Second Congregational church for Friday has been postponed one week, 8112.

I desire to lease a nine or ten room dwelling as centrally located as possible. Possession October 1st if convenient. Address J. H. Livingston, 8112.

Collins M. Graves and son William went to Troy this morning. The boy injured his arm some time ago and has had it in a plaster cast for some weeks. It was expected that the cast could be removed today.

Edward Donnelly, who has been in Bennington during the summer, left today for New York to begin rehearsals with the Francis Starr company. The production this year will be the same as last season, Marie Odele, and Mr. Donnelly will have the same place in the cast.

Seven small boys were brought before Justice E. C. Bennett today upon complaint of Eli Briggs who asserted that the youngsters had invaded his cornfield to secure material for a corn roast which was held on "the island" last night. Mr. Briggs asserted that the boys not only stole corn but that they trampled the field and destroyed his property.

List of letters remaining uncalled for at the post office Bennington for the week ending September 13, 1915: Mr. L. A. Alfred, Mr. Chas. Healy, Mr. David Higgins, H. M. Monet, James N. Stevens, Mrs. Walter Kelley, Miss Susie Wright, Mrs. George Wright. These letters will be sent to the Dead Letter office September 27, 1915 if not delivered before. In calling for above, please say "Advertised" giving date of lat. Emory S. Harris, P. M.

News has been received here of the death in Rutland of Mrs. Edna C. Pierce, a former resident of Bennington who passed away in that city on Tuesday morning. Death was due to apoplexy. Mrs. Pierce, who was 68 years old, was at one time a resident of St. Johnsbury. She leaves one daughter, Mrs. Maude C. Ruyane of Parsons, Kan. The funeral was held at her late home in Rutland Thursday afternoon and the remains were taken to Danbury for burial.

This concert to be given at three o'clock on Saturday afternoon at Mrs. Clarence Holden's, will be high grade in all respects, and an unusual opportunity for Bennington music lovers. A classical program rendered by finished artists is not often within our easy reach; Bach, Beethoven, Gluck, Brahms, De Bussey, and Rubenstein are among the composers. The entire proceeds from this concert go to the war sufferers, which fact will increase the enjoyment of the listeners. Those not already having tickets can obtain them at Gokay's drug store, or at the door tomorrow.

SOUTH SHAFTSBURY

Miss Abbie Dickenson is attending school at Bennington.

Oliver Lawrence and family have returned from a visit out of town.

Mrs. David Hill's father, who has been spending a few days with his daughter has returned to Arlington.

Parker C. Eddy and wife have returned to their home in Albany after a few days' visit at Mr. Eddy's former home.

Several from this place were in attendance at the funeral services of the late Mrs. Harrington, the widow of the late Joel Harrington of Center Shaftsbury.
